Original Origami Student Takayama CP Origami Opening Number January 11

Hello everyone, welcome to CP Opening!

Let 's talk about three sketches today, here is the first blooming Qian Zhihe🎉

This work is relatively easy to wire, The CP below has more detailed bisectors, so I wo n't explain too much here, but I still shoot a lot of the folding process. I hope everyone can play one. I use The paper is a bit stiff, I hope everyone can use a slightly softer paper. (softer than A4)

8 equally divided squares, slashed

Let 's start.

The above is a fairly fine line drawing, so no text is added.
Let's fold next ~~~~~
