Hello friends, today Syn is still bringing you new real (pigeon) shots (sub)

> Today the term "release pigeons" has many meanings, including deception, breach of contract, breach of contract, failure to keep promises, and so on.
>
> Related sources currently have the following statements:
>
> 1. Lottery tickets from old Shanghai, commonly known as "white dove tickets", usually go without return.
>
> 2. The "painful lesson" of the old pigeon breeders in old Beijing, the pigeons cannot be returned after they are released, because there are always people who are specifically wrapped in pigeons waiting there.
>
> 3. The act of abducting other valuable pigeons is to train a special type of "seducer pigeons". When others release the pigeons, release their own "seducer pigeons" and mix them into the pigeons. The "seducer pigeons" will trick the pigeons into disorientation and lead them back to the stealer's cage.
>
> 4. In ancient times, people used pigeons to communicate. Once, two people agreed to write to me at that time, but one of them only wrote to the pigeons and did not write a letter. The other said, why do you only put pigeons? If they do not fulfill their promises, this is the way to release the pigeons.
>
> 5. The ace pigeon is the person who releases pigeons all day. He has said a lot, and one promise is not fulfilled. It is common in novels and video websites.
>
> 6. The term "release pigeons" also has specific meanings in specific areas, such as the black words of the police or rivers and lakes: use color to lure clients, and then carry out other illegal and criminal activities, such as robbery, theft, extortion, etc. The act of "releasing pigeons" is not just prostitution, but gains greater benefits by means of prostitution.
>
> 7. In old Shanghai, in the name of a woman who went to an employer to be a nanny, or a concubine, and then took away the deceived property, it was called "putting a pigeon" on the underworld.
>
> In these cases, the "pigeon" in "release pigeons" has many meanings, such as: organized use of hue to seduce men, women, rogue groups, underworld, and possibly spy organizations. The purpose of this organization to release pigeons is generally It is to blackmail this seduced man. The targets of blackmail may be money, business intelligence, military intelligence, state secrets, or winning bids in commercial competition (through cheating).
>
> 8. In the field of hacking, "putting pigeons" refers to planting Trojans, because "Grey Pigeons" is a famous remote control Trojan.
>
> 9. There is also a new meaning now that the other party is invited to participate in a certain event, but the other party does not come, which is also a pigeon release.

This pigeon muji is foldable, so you do n’t need to find big paper🫡
