Origami student Takayama CP origami opening number2019-06-23

Hi everyone, welcome to CP Opening!
Although the time is a bit tight, I still hope that I can complete all the issues in the June preview in this last week, and I hope that everyone can fold out one or two works. Come on!

Talk about this issue: little father
The tadpole is a terrestrial arthropod , and the body is composed of many body segments, each of which has foot feet, so it is a multi-legged creature. The salamander is also known as Tianlong, Hypodiptera , Lesser Spiny Beetle , Wugong, Tadpole, etc. It is a poisonous glandular predatory arthropod. There are three common types of salamanders: red head, blue head, and black head. The back of the red head is red and black, the abdomen is light red, and the feet are light orange or yellow. The blue-headed back and feet are blue, and the abdomen is light blue. It is small in size and about half the length of the red-headed hawk.
Blackheads are black on the back and feet, yellowish belly, and smaller in size. In the three red head centipede best, large size, high output, docile, adaptable, fast growth. Generally more common in rural areas, often located in wet corners, under bricks, rotten leaves, dilapidated wet houses, etc., more common in summer. The salamander is a carnivorous animal with a wide range of recipes. It particularly likes to hunt various insects. 蜈蚣 The poisonous glands secrete venom and can be used for medicinal purposes. Suitable for artificial breeding. " Compendium of Materia Medica " said: "蜈蚣, there are everywhere in the southwest, spring in winter and winter 蛰, foot and foot, double whisker Qiwei." Usually the body is very long, and there are many pairs of foot. "Materia Medica Yanyi" states: "The cricket is black and green, with red feet and yellow belly." The cricket and snake, scorpion, gecko, and toad are also called " five poisons ."

Let's recall, how many of these five poisons have we discounted?

Let 's take a look at this CP and prepare for it.

Don't look at the grid so many grids. In fact, as long as you are willing to fight, you can win.
Look at my cat's thoughts!

Let 's gather together all the students who have made a line. First, fold out the valley line on the far right, then fold out the peak line in the middle of the figure below, and enter two spaces in one unit

Let 's do the last three parts, first fold out the lower head, then pull out the small black frame structure from the bottom up, and finally aggregate the jagged structure on the right, because there is really nothing here The structure of the difficulty is not explained one by one

Now let's collapse the previously aggregated structures into the basic type.

In the process of our setbacks, everyone may be very troubled, because this is really time-consuming for people to collapse, but think about the final success, I hope everyone works hard, and add a little patience

At this point, it should be said that the aggregation is completed, let's take a look at the simple process of shaping!
Objectively speaking, this work is not too difficult, it just takes time, aggregation takes time, and plastic surgery also takes time!

Before you start, please think about your personal preferences. I started from scratch. How about you?

Did you succeed?
If this work does not follow the peak and valley line, the back section can be changed to a feeling that it can be lifted, but still that sentence, personal preference!

Well,
That's it for this issue!
See you next time!
