Here's another sketch, you can be a judge!

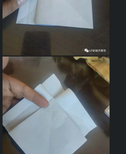

So far for now, the square base is finished, in the second step, the table that is crossed diagonally, will be the front leg of the horse and dragon.

Now we start to segregate!

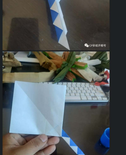

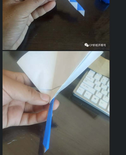

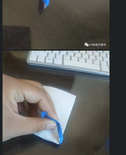

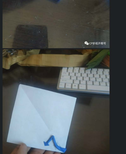

I don't know if anyone has made a 3-D (?) ; write to me in the comments!

This was how it was years ago, and we will meet again in the future!

At the end of this issue, I wish all friends who love origami, especially CP origami in advance, I good mood and appetite for the new year!

Come on, origami gentlemen!
See you in February!

Once again, the name of the welcome 123456789 is the most basic origami shape!
I posted a lot of the structure and origami sketches, and of course there are original works in the future!

Finally, I would like to mention in the video above, and the picture you see, only beautiful, the words are still complete, and I can utilize CP words that are not in the dictionary, and I hope that I can bring more beautiful and interesting origami and products of almost all the texts contained by the public account that has space for users.
