The flowers on the back can be rolled with a pen or something.

The following is a sketch of two domestic two-color works master bitter tea. I will say about such two-color works in the future. Of course, this is only for CP. If there are many illustrations, you should just look at it. Mainly I have little information and I don't know how many have been illustrated.
The original drawing of this work was not saved, and the graphic lines were accidentally drawn.😄
