Original Origami Student Takayama CP Origami Opening Number January 18

Hello everyone, welcome to CP Opening!

It should be said that since the actual shooting of the sketch, there are a lot of friends who really pay attention to this public account, and there are a lot of friends who added me to WeChat and privately wrote me a message to leave a message. Let me talk about the works they want to fold. I 'm personally enthusiastic about promoting CP, so I will read the message as long as I have time, but I still want to see everyone can fold it, because the most convincing part of modern origami is your work, everyone cheers !!

Let 's take a look at the first sketch
